INTERSTATE LEAGUE.

New Schedule that Cuts Down the Series of Games to Two in a Town. Special to the Indianapolis Journal. TERRE HAUTE, Ind., May 8.-The schedule committe of the Western Interstate Bail League has made a new schedule. which it is thought will make the series of games more interesting. The old schedule, which will be adhered to until the 16th of this month, has four games in a series in as the patrons become tired of the contests between the same clubs. Under the new schedule the clubs will play two games and then go to another city, the clubs following one another around the circuit in an endless chain. The league officials feel very much encouraged now that there has been something of a reorganization of the league. All the dues have been paid and the attendance at the first four games in the three Indiana cities of Lafayette, Fort Wayne and Terre Haute, was large enough to give assurance of a profitable season. Hammond, which took Joliet's place, is said to be ripe for the game and will be one of the best paying towns in the league. Lafayette has made arrangements for railroad transportation to the grounds outside the city on Sunday and the railroad company at Fort Wayne will run trains to Warsaw, where the Sunday games will be played. The new schedule is as follows: Bloomington-At Terre Haute: June 2, 3, 26, 27; July 29, 21; Aug. 13, 14; Sept. 5, 6, At Lateratie: June 4, 5, 28, 29; July 22, 23; Aug. | will.

THOMPSON'S FAMILY REUNION. Philadelphia's Right Fielder Meets

Home Folks in This City. A long-limbed, well-muscled and sunburnt young fellow, modestly rigged out in a black suit, rushed through the gates at the Union Station last night and made a dash for a group of persons who stood on the steps of the south entrance, apparently waiting for some one. The tall young man was "Sam" Thompson, the invincible right fielder of the Philadelphia ball club. The little party collected on the steps included his sisters, brothers and cousins. They had come up from Danville, Hendricks county, to get a glimpse of the redoubtable Sam-uel. The Philadelphia club was on its way from Louisville to St. Louis, where it plays to-day. The club came in at 11 o'clock private car attached to the J., M. & train. A twenty minutes' wait was necessary before the car could be swung on to the Vandalia track. The Thompson family enjoyed the delay immensely. The big fielder administered a bear-like hug to all of his relatives, and then devoted his attention to three or four pair of rosy lips lifted to his. He was looking fine, but declined to talk baseball. It wasn't often, le said, that he enjoyed a visit with his family, and he proposed taking advantage of the twenty minutes allotted to greetings.

THE FAIR WILL CONTEST.

Long Litigation and Fat Pickings for Lawyers Likely to Result.

SAN FRANCISCO, May &-There will be a battle royal over the twenty or more millions left by the late Senator James G. Fair and the prospect of long litigation promises fat pickings for the army of lawyers in the case. Charles L. Fair has filed his contest of the will of his father, sometimes described as the "Goodfellow will," and sometimes called the "Pen will," as distinguished from "the pencil will," produced by Mrs. Nettie Craven. The contest is made partly on the ground of the existence of a will made later, to-wit, the Craven will, and partly on the ground of undue influence working on a man in enfeebled health. It has been an open secret for some time that the attorneys for Charles L. Fair were not at all in fear of the famous forfeiture clause in the Goodfellow will, providing that any legatee who shall contest shall forfeit all right to a share of the estate of Fair either as heir at law or as beneficiary under the will. The pen will is dated Sept. 1. 1894, and the Craven will dated Sept. 24. 1894. The first will left the property in trust; the second gave Charles Fair $500,000 outright, besides a share of the remainder of the estate. Charles S. Wheeler, one of Charles Fair's attorneys, was seen last night and, among other things, he said that a wrong impression had gone abroad relative to the meaning of Judge Slack's decision on Monday last, "Our effort," said Mr. Wheeler," was not directed merely to " proposition that the later will should be heard first, but we asked further that the earlier will go off the calendar indefinitely until the determination of the validity of the Craven will, socalled, Judge Slack denies that motion, but t still remains for him to decide which of the two wills he will first take up." Charles L. Fair is the champion of the roponents. The attorneys suggest that it is not necessary for Mrs. Herman Oelrichs and Miss Virginia Fair to join. They maintain that the thing to break is the will and the will once broken, is broken for all. Herman Oelrichs, Mrs. Oelrichs, Miss Fair and some friends will leave for the East in private car this evening, bound for New York. They will probably go abroad before returning to California. This was the day fixed for hearing the etition for the probating of the will dated Sept. 21. At the request of the executors a continuance was granted for one week to enable the executors to consider this proposition, the executors, however, not con-ceding young Fair's right to contest the

THE RACE-TRACK WAR

TEMPORARY INJUNCTION GRANTED AGAINST ROBY YESTERDAY.

'Dry Goods Clerk Brings Suit but Hawthorne Track Said to Be Instigating It-Other Races.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. HAMMOND, Ind., May 8 .- There will be no more racing on the ... oby track for the present. Late this afternoon Judge Gillett granted a temporary restraining order against James A. Webb, Rodney Wells, John Condon, John Kelsey, Clem Creveling, Dick Dwyer, the Roby Fair Association. Roby Breeders' Association, Indiana Racing Association, Edward Roby, Edward A. Shedd and twenty others. The complaint was filed just as the court was on the eve of adjourning for the day. The case was brought by Julius Dunsing, and sets forth that the defendants are carrying on a race meeting contrary to the Roby racing, bill. A temporary restraining order was granted and the case set for final hearing on May 24. This is a move that was not expected. It is the general opinion that the Hawthorne people are at the back of the proceeding. For several days some one has been trying to get parties here to have the bookmakers doing business at Roby arrested. When asked why the final hearing was set so far ahead the attorney replied that the law provided that two weeks' notice should be given to nonresident de-fendants. Other lawyers say that while that may be a fact it was well known that personal service could be had on every one of the parties to-morrow. The case is a queer one from one start. The plaintiff is a young man twenty-one years old, a clerk in a dry goods store, and it is not certain that he has ever been inside of the Roby grounds.

To-day's races resulted as follows: First Race—Six furlongs. Screw Driver won. S. W. Stanton second, Bonnie M. third. Time, 1:1914.

Second—Five furlongs. Dominico won; Ruthven second, Tit for Tat third. Time, Third-Six furlongs. Jolly Joe won; Lady Rose second, Harold third. Time, 1:18%. Fourth-Six furlongs. Abana Boy won; Kalamazoo second, Frank Fuller third. Fifth-Seven and a half furlongs. Freddie L. T. won; Florence P. second, Gover-August Belmont. A resolution was carried declining the application for a license of the Roby Fair Association. The reason given for declining the request of this association was that the tracks are located west of the territory over which the Jockey club assumes jurisdiction.

St. Asaph Races Will Continue. WASHINGTON, May 8 .- The racing at St. Asaph to-day was fully up to the average. The beautiful day drew out a large attendance, and the books did fairly well. The future course of the club was definitely mapped out by a circular which was issued to the horsemen, stating that the meeting would continue after May 14, under Western Turf Congress rules. A meeting of the officials of the track was held to-day and S. W. Street, Nacy and the filly Summertime were ruled off the Jockey Club tracks. Street is the owner of the filly who was pulled by Nacey, last Friday. Judge Powers and Starter Fitzgerald were called to New York yesterday to be present at a meeting of the Jockey Club, held to investigate the Summertime race. Ex-jockey Fitzpatrick held the flag to-day and his work elicited much applause. Summaries: First Race—Six furlongs. Factorum. 6 to 1, won; Nick, 10 to 5, second; Longbrook, 10 to 1, third. Time, 1:16. Second-Half mile. Bessie Browning. 3 1, won; Cutlong. 15 to 1, second; Miss Bow-ser, 15 to 1, third. Time, :50%.

Third-Five furlongs. White Cockade, 8 to 1, won; Ruby, 10 to 1, second; Kandor, 15 to 1, third. Time, 1:041/2.

Fourth-Half mile. Hermia, 9 to 20, won; Fifield, 45 to 1, second; Himyara, 6 to 1, Time, :50. Fifth-One mile. Bandit, 4 to 5, won Van Brunt, 12 to 1, second: Hammie, 4 to 1. third, Time, 1:42. St. Maxim Won the Handicap. LOUISVILLE, May 8.-Three favorites and two well-backed second choices captured the events at Churchill Downs, this afternoon, and the bookies suffered in consequence. The track was lightning fast, as the time made by Sir Maxim and Ben Eder will attest. In the Louisville Hotel handicap, at a mile, they were sent away to a good start, with Satsuma in the lead, Henry Young second and St. Maxim third. The St. Blaize colt assumed command at the quarter and led all the way, winning easily. Henry Young was whipped out to beat Sat-suma for the place. Ben Eder had little diffi-culty in disposing of his field in the last race, but Graham, on May Pinkerton, went to sleep and Rewarder nipped him at the wire for the place. Summaries: First Race-Seven-eighths of a mile. Halloween, 6 to 1, won; Gurgle, 6 to 1, second; Tobin, 9 to 10, third. Time, 1:28%. Second—Five-eighths of a mile. Concession, even, won; Sir Dilke, 7 to 1, second; Sir Archer, 20 to 1, third. Time, 1:03½.

Third—Louisville Hotel handicap; one mile. St. Maxim, 109 (Thorpe), 6 to 5, won by two lengths; Henry Young, 116 (Clayton), 6 to 5, second; Satsuma, 105 (Cassin), 4 to third. Time, 1:40%. Fourth-Three-quarters of a mile. Domingo, 5 to 1, won; Royal Spirit, 10 to 1, second; Clinty C., 10 to 1, third. Time, 1:15¼.

Fifth-Half mile. Ben Eder, even, won; Rewarder, 8 to 5, second; May Pinkerton, 1 to 1, third. Time, :48%. "Lucky" Baldwin, who arrived in the city to-day, shipped Rey El Santa Anita to Brooklyn, where he will start in the Brooklyn handicap May 15.

Baltimore Trotting Races. BALTIMORE, May 8 .- The entries were given out to-night for the spring meeting at the Gentlemen's Driving Park, this city, beginning on Tuesday next, and continuing on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday. This is the initial meeting of the New York. Philadelphia and Baltimore circuit. May 14-2:24 class, trotting, has fifteen entries; 2:13 class, pacing, eight entries; 2:40 class, trotting, fourteen entries. May 15-2:21 class, trotting, ten entries; 2:25 class, pacing, eleven entries; 2:32 class, trotting, eight entries. May 16-2:18 class, trotting, eight entries; 2:10 class, pacing, seven entries; 2:27 class, trotting, thirteen entries. May 17-2:35 class, trotting, thirteen entries; 2:18 class, pacing, ten entries. The 2:13 class for trotters did not fill and is declared off. Many of the horses entered (they are from all parts of the country) are already at the track, which is in splendid condition, but are working out hard. Good weather next week is all that is needful to insure a most successful

SAN FRANCISCO, May 8 .- The feature of the day was the easy win of Her Majesty, She is probably the best two-year-old filly of the year in California. She is controlled by Frank Van Ness, and is by Imp. Promptu Briton, out of Elsie Ban. The fourth race was declared off, and out of the other five two favorites won. Morris Park Meet Off. NEW YORK, May 8 .- The stewards of the National Steeple Chase Association held a meeting late to-night at the Hotel Brunswick and decided to declare off the meet scheduled for Morris Park to-morrow. This action was taken in view of the fact that the Governor has not yet signed the Percy-Gray racing bill. All entrance money will be refunded to the owners. The assoclation will race on Saturday if possible, giving over-night events. If it is impossible to race on Saturday the association will attempt to race on Monday, and if that is not possible the meet will not be held until after the Sheepshead Bay meeting, in July next.

CYCLE MAKERS AND RIDERS.

Conference in the Interest of Matters Affecting Wheelmen. NEW YORK, May 8 .- A conference between the League of American Wheelmen and the Board of Trade of Cycle Manufacturers was held here to-day. A. C. Willison was chairman and Ernest R. Franks secretary. Matters affecting the general interests and advancement A dispatch from New York says: The sidered were agitation for good roads and jockey club met to-day at the office of convenient connecting paths; action relative to municipal and State legislation; bicycle transportation in railroad and street cars; contracts with expert riders; stolen bleycles; increasing the L. A. W membership and enforcing the law rules, Finding the proper consideration of these questions impossible at to-day's meeting a resolution was adopted appointing Messrs. Willison and Spalding a committee to consider the different subjects under contemplation and to devise ways and means to secure effective benefit to the associations. The two organizations will be called together again when the presidents have had their conference.

· Plenty of Hale Money. There is plenty of Hale money ready for any takers on the match with Charles Ward, next Monday night, at English's Opera House, Still, Hale does not hold the Buffalo wrestler too cheaply and will take no chances in the struggle. He realizes that if Ward is as good a man as he was last fall there will be hard work before him and he is preparing for it. Ward claims to be in better condition than he ever was and says Hale will find him harder to throw than in their last match, which was a draw. He is not claiming much but remarked yesterday that he and his friends would cover all the Hale money in sight at even terms, Schooner White and Crew Lost. PORT TOWNSEND, Wash., May 8.-Mail advices from Kodiak, Alaska, by steamer Topeka confirm the report that the schooner C. D. White, San Francisco, was wrecked in a gale and snowstorm on Kodiak island, Bering sea, on April 22. One letter says eleven lives were lost and another places the loss at seventeen.
